The Roadrunne

Quilt Anyone?

By Brian Reinhardt

Club Runner Patti Reinhardt does a lot more than run with her time. Beyond working full-time, chasing after two boys, and managing to keep me in line (yup, I'm the lucky guy who's married to her), she also makes quilts out of old running and walking t-shirts.

Of course, you don't have to be a runner or walker to want a quilt and she could make one from any t-shirts that you wanted, but we are in fact a running and walking club so up to this point that is exactly what she's done.

I'm sure most of you have seen the advertising in the back of running magazines asking you to send them some shirts and they'll make you a quilt and I'm sure that many of you have already done so. But look no further, we have our own "quilter" right here in our own club.

Patti started by making a quilt for herself, kind of her own Guinea Pig so to speak and after seeing it I had to have one as well! (Mine is pictured on page 11) When Roxane Burrous saw Patti's and mine on the Bar Harbor trip she decided that she'd surprise Jim with one as well and the (continued on page 11)

A quilt that Patti made for club runner Jim Burrous.

Just a reminder to get your dues in to Mark Shorter, our treasurer, for 2006. It's hard to get more bang for your buck than with an active lifestyle in a friendly running club. For sale: Club Kokomo Logo (as pictured below) is a 5 inch diameter self stick sticker. It can easily be removed and placed at another location. Cost is $1. See Treasurer Mark Shorter at a CK event.

PLEASE READ!

I seemed to have failed to include a date in the newsletter about when the awards banquet will take place. The absolute no doubt date and time is February 19, 2006, 2:00 P.M. at the Senior Citizen's Center in Foster Park. John mentioned in his January "On the Roads" that the date would be February 12, but a scheduling conflict forced us to move the date back. If you plan to attend please bring a dessert to go with the Chili from the Chili Cook-off. Or if you want to make some chili contact me and I'll let John Wiles know.

WHAT KIND OF RUNNER AM I?

All my life I thought runners were runners. I never realized there were marathoners, ultra-marathoners, trail runners, road runners, elite runners, jogger runners, plodder runners, etc. Since becoming a member of Club Kokomo I have discovered the many variations of runners. Looking back over my life I have come to the conclusion that all of us are or have been in a number of categories before.

Martin Luther King Day was a welcome holiday for me and I planned to run long and slow. One of my favorite people (think nemesis) Lorene Sandifur invited a group of us to run at Eagle Creek on this day. Thirteen CKRR members showed up to run that wonderful day. Don and Diane Gifford provided wonderful hospitality, but I had this uneasy feeling when Don said he doesn't run the back 3 trail miles often because of the terrain. Then I heard Charlie Skoog tell how much he loves the trail. To hear Charlie talk about it I think he would run this trail every morning if he lived close enough.

So how can you tell what kind of runner you are? How could Don or Charlie know if they are a trail runner or a roadrunner? Here is a simple test you can take yourself. (Lorene, if you need help scoring it, send $25 to Coyote Kids and I will score it for you.)

What is the difference between a trail runner and a road runner? Here is an easy to administer self-test to help you answer this question for yourself. Simply add the points indicated in brackets for each "yes" answer, and score yourself at the end.

- 1. Which would you rather run? The "Boston Marathon" in under three hours (0); the "Pike's Peak Marathon" in under five hours (+1); the "Hardrock 100", who cares about the time? (+2)
- 2. Do you regularly encounter animals, which could maim or kill you such as elk, bear, cougar, or rattlesnake (dogs don't count; cows count, but only if you've actually been threatened by one)? (+1)
- 3. Which do you fear more on runs? Getting shot by hunters (+1), getting shot up by thugs (-1)?
- 4. Do you regularly return from runs bleeding? (+1)
- 5. Are all your running socks brown? (+1)
- 6. Have you ever gotten dirt in your mouth or up your nose from a fall? (+1)
- 7. Have you ever taken a detour in a race to top a peak or just to "see what's over the next ridge"? (+1)
- 8. Do you time your workouts? (-1) Do you record the times? (-1)
- 9. Do you own a GPS watch? (0) Do you use it? (-1)
- 10. Do you keep a written PR list? (-1) Is it publicly accessible i.e., pinned to the wall of your office, or posted on an Internet webpage? (-1)
- 11. Have you ever missed a meeting at work because that loop was "a little longer than you thought"? (+1)
- 12. Have you ever had to pull cactus thorns out of your shoe, or a yucca spine out of your shin? (+1)
- 13. On most of your runs, do you often have to decide whether to cross against the red light? (-1)

- 14. How long does it take a fresh pair of shoes to lose that "new" look? Two weeks (-1), one week (0), three days (+1), one day (+2)
- 15. Have you ever torn your shirt, shorts, or flesh on a barbed-wire fence? (+1)
- 16. Do you regularly carry a street map on runs? (+1) A topo map? (+2)
- 17. Do you regularly wear gaiters or dump large amounts of dirt from your shoes? (+1)
- 18. Have you ever gotten lost enough on a run that someone had to come looking for you? (+1)
- 19. Are there times you can't go on your favorite run because of mud or high water? (+1)
- 20. Can you pee anywhere you want on runs? (+1)

Scores -

Less than 7 points: A true road runner; may your PRs forever quicken. From 7 to 12 points: A trail runner in spirit; now get out of the city and move to where there are some trails! More than 12 points: A hardcore trail runner; I can almost see your bloody knees from here!

Good Friends, Good Trails, Good Times

By Brian Reinhardt

If you've never run or walked in Eagle Creek Park then you need to find a way to get down to the west side of Indy to do so. It has miles of roads and trails for every ability level and the scenery is fabulous.

If you've never run or walked with a great group of people like this from Club Kokomo the you need to find a way to do so. There are tons of stories, smiles, and inspiration to last you a running or walking lifetime.

Such was the case times two on Monday, January 16th thanks to the invitation of Don and Diane Gifford for anyone that wanted to make it down to Indy for a run or walk in Eagle Creek

You'll probably recognize at least somebody in this group so any excuses that you might have, like not knowing anybody, might not work. And even if you didn't know anybody Charlie Skoog was along so you'd have known at least one person in the first minute.

We were greeted by not only the welcoming arms of Don and Diane, but also by perfect January weather with temperatures in the 40's and brilliand sunshine.

And if a perfect running day with perfect hosts wasn't enough, Don was even kind enough to post pictures of Lorene along the course to ensure that she (and us) didn't get lost! Thanks Don!

Following anywhere from 3-4 miles or many more we finally ended up at Bob Evans restaurant for some very good food and even better company before heading back north later in the day.

So as long as the invitation is open from Don and Diane you'd be a fool not to take advantage of the opportunity to make your way to Eagle Creek for some of the best running that Indiana has to offer.

It just so happens that Dan Lutes (far right, second row) has organized another chance to run in Eagle Creek on February 11th at 8:00 A.M. with the race director of the Deadwood-Mickelson Marathon, Jerry Dunn. He'll be in town for the weekend visiting his mother and would love to meet as many club runners as he can while here. Don't pass up an opportunity to run in Eagle Creek with a great group or friends and enjoy some awsome trails and roads!

Don and Diane Gifford opened up their home and their hearts for a fun day of running in Eagle Creek Park.

On the Roads

By Johnnie 'O

Sometimes Johnny 'O Needs Bash Between the Ears

RACE FOR THE CURE

Suffering from a cold and job pressures in December, Johnny 'O had entertained thoughts about not organizing a Komen Race for the Cure team in 2006. He had put the group together for years, and reasoned it was time for someone else to shoulder the load. Then, while sharing a New Year's Eve lunch with Club Kokomo friends, it became clear why he needed to continue organizing the team.

Johnny O's dad remarked more than once that sometimes his son needed a bash between the ears to get him thinking straight. Johnny O received a bash at the lunch while listening to a friend talk about being a five-year breast cancer survivor and seeing the joy in her and her husband's eyes.

His friends at the Indianapolis Komen organization reinforced the bash at the annual team captain meeting in January. The room was filled with courageous people who were fighting for their life or the lives of family and friends. The positive energy and enthusiasm of the volunteers and survivors were more contagious than a cold virus.

So, Johnny 'O is asking you to make a positive impact in the fight against breast cancer by taking part in the 15th annual Susan G. Komen Indianapolis Race for the Cure on April 22.

In 14 years, the Indianapolis race and its 223,000 participants have raised more than $6.95 million; granted almost $3.8 million to organizations in a 21-county service area to provide breast health screening, education, and treatment programs to men and women; and donated almost $1.5 million to fund cutting edge breast cancer research.

Nationwide this year, one in seven women will be diagnosed with breast cancer, and 40,110 women, including 925 Hoosiers, and 470 men will die from disease. Breast cancer is the leading cause of death for women ages 40-59 yet, the mortality rate would decrease by 30 percent if every woman over age 50 had a mammogram.

Last year, 36,000 race participants raised more than $1.3 million. This year, the goal is 40,000 participants.

Johnny 'O urges everyone to register online. It's easy. Our team name is Club Kokomo Roadrunners and our team captain is Capt. Jack. Just do the following:

- 1. Go to www.komenindy.org and click Race for the Cure.
- 2. If you registered online last year, you can log in using your username and password. If you don't remember your username and password, you can ask to have it emailed to you.
- 3. If you are new to the team, go to the right column and click 'Join a team'. You do not need to be a CK member to be on our team. Again, our team name is Club Kokomo Roadrunners.

If you do not have access to a computer, contact Johnny 'O at 452-6706 no later than March 22. Online registration ends April 1.

SPRINT WORKOUT

It has been years since Johnny 'O did anything fast, so his CK friends were surprised to see him running sprints after a January Wednesday night training run. He had good reason to do so, however.

In the January newsletter, it was announced that Club Kokomo will host its first Chili Contest at the Awards Luncheon in the Senior Citizen Center on Feb. 19.

In past years, Steve Miscoi, with

Annie O's help, cooked chili for the annual Awards Luncheon. Steve will not be able to serve up his famous soup this year. Last fall, he became a corrections officer at the Howard County Jail, and since his schedule varies, he does not know at this time if he will be off the day of the luncheon. So, CK's officers decided to have the club's first Chili Cooking Contest.

Members were urged to contact Ray Tetrault (854-1393), to register for the contest, and then use five pounds of hamburger to make chili for the Awards Luncheon. If not enough people signed up, Johnny 'O warned that he would ask Lorene Sandifur, the closet Rin Tin Tin Fan Club member, to make chili.

Johnny 'O was just kidding; Ray was not. Annie 'O was the first to sign up; a few others followed. However, more cooks were needed.

At dinner following a Wednesday night training run, Ray, desperate for chili cooks, asked Lorene to help out. Despite groans and disparaging comments about Lorene's culinary skills from her 'friends' she agreed, with one stipulation: Johnny 'O had to eat the first bowl! Johnny O's 'friends' immediately accepted the terms.

A flu-like wave came over Johnny 'O as he thought about eating Lorene's chili, so he got up from the dinner table and began practicing for the event by doing repeat sprints to the restaurant's bathroom.

Ray still needs more chili cooks and Johnny O's stomach still feels queasy, so please contact Ray (854-1393) and become a chili cook. If Ray gets enough volunteer cooks, maybe he won't remind Lorene that she needs to make chili, and then Johnny 'O can stop doing bathroom sprints.

FINAL THOUGHT

Irish eyes are smiling because St. Patrick's Day is less than two months away.

SARA MILLER UPDATE

In CK's January newsletter, Ray Tetrault shared an email from CK member Sara Miller, who is being treated for breast cancer. Most of us do not have a clue what a person has to go through during such treatments. Johnny 'O asked Sara to keep us updated, so we could better understand the fight Sara and others are waging. The following is a late January email.

I had a bone scan, PET scan, two drainage tubes removed from my chest in Indy by the surgeon, and my first chemo treatment. The range of motion in my left arm is still very limited and I will not be starting physical therapy for that until my stitches and staples from my incision are removed. That is happening tomorrow in Indy and not a day too soon.

My incision is still a major source of pain and I feel the staples and chemo treatment are a source of that. Right now the doctors are postponing my second chemo to let me heal.

With my mastectomy I had a total of 33 lymph nodes removed. It has been four weeks since my surgery and I am still taking pain meds periodically. Also, two days after my chemo, nausea set in. Last Wednesday I ended up in the ER with fever, nausea, pain, and a slight infection. It was at that time that they decided I needed to heal and put off the second chemo. I had antibiotics run through me and just finished taking the last in pill form.

Dr. Steele and his staff are great. They found a new anti-nausea and pain med that work better for me and I am finally able to eat again and feel halfway normal.

John, it may be too late to help you with the Race for the Cure, but if it is not, please let me know. I will help in any way I can.

Our daughter, Emily, has actually organized a team in my honor and we are so proud of her for doing that. It was a total surprise to Dan and me. She called us after it was all set up. It's called "Sara's Supporters".

CK's Race for the Cure team and Sara's Supporters will meet at the race for a team picture.

Welcome to Club Kokomo Roadrunners!

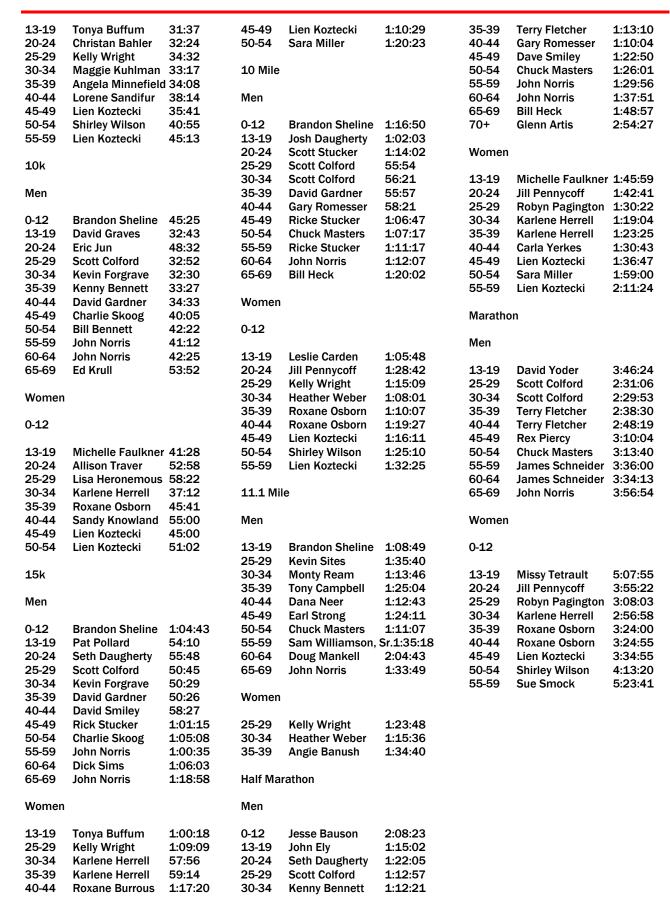

If anyone is interested in purchasing a women's or a men's red Club Kokomo singlet from Jim and Roxane Burrous just let me know at the address on the front. They purchased a different size and have these for sale for what they paid for them—$15 each.

end result turned out pretty darn nice.

I don't know about you, but I never get the opportunity to wear all of those tshirts and couldn't think of a better way to remember those races and good times with friends than to have Patti make a auilt to do so.

And as you can see they sure do make a very colorful addition to any room and a keepsake that most only dream of having.

I won't pretend that I'm not biased when it comes to my opinion about what to do with your shirts, but I think I made the right choice.

Heck, you might even decide that you need to run a lot more races just to be able to keep warm with one of these beauties! I know I've found myself secretly hoping (okay, maybe not so secretly!) that the t-shirt from the next race is some new color or design that'll look good on my next quilt. Thanks Patti, I love my quilt and I love you!
