A Run to Remember 2 days, 2 cities & 2 Marathons Lawrence, KS Trail Run and OKC-Memorial Marathon

Brian, Patti, Melissa, Robin, Ray and Miles

What a weekend! "A Run to Remember", that was the name of the race in OKC. The whole weekend became a "run to remember!" Ray, myself, Patti and Brian Reinhardt, our daughter, Melissa (who was 3 months pregnant with our first grandchild), and her dog, (who just celebrated his 1st birthday) Miles planned a "crazy weekend- double marathon" for April 24th and 25th. We decided, after much debate, that we could save money and time by doing 2 marathons in a weekend. The main issue was one of the marathons was a TRAIL marathon. I don't like to run trails because that word "trail" has too many different meanings. You have the Nickel Plate Trail, which is paved, wide, and a mild incline, then there's the Mounds Run with a very hilly, narrow, path through the woods. It's a dirt path with roots, stones, and other challenges. This trail marathon was NOT the Nickel Plate Trail type (see attached pictures).

The weather was mild and cloudy. We joined the hearty trail runners at the start. Some were doing the marathon like us, some were doing 40 miles, and some were doing 100K. I should've examined the web site closer...PLUS they had 3 straight days of rain with 2" per day before the marathon. That does make for wet conditions on a trail.

Missy's dog, Miles, was very excited and very patient waiting for the race to start. He LOVES to run (he is a puppy and an English Pointer-bred to run and hunt). Once the whistle blew, Miles was "possessed"! Missy called him Psycho Puppy. The first mile he barked and pulled and squealed, but he did settle down nicely after about a mile. He just wanted to run. I was willing to give him my bib, but he had his own.

The race started with a 3 mile loop outside of the woods. Ray will tell you that he was worried about getting his shoes wet as we crossed the dew laden field in the first mile. I was thinking, "Oh this isn't so bad if we get to run in the fields and roads too". Then

From the President

As I type this; the end of May is upon us and as you read this June has arrived. It is with regret I turn the calendar over to the month June, for as your Club President I will be absent most of the month. Work is taking me to China for the first half of the month and then bringing a client from Taiwan for several days upon my immediate return home. I am not sure for most of June when or where I will be running. I do know for sure I will miss my family, my friends and Indiana. My job takes me all over Indiana and I often find myself driving down a lovely Godscaped gravel road, listening to a praise song on the radio, and relishing in the windshield view of what I love about where we live – the view. Indiana is so beautiful. Trav and I have run in many beautiful places around the country and have stopped over in many friendly towns. I often would say to Trav, “I could live here”, but ultimately I love my Indiana home. I hope as you get out walking, running or biking that you take the time to view the Godscape around you and appreciate what you have been so blest to receive.

Hats off again to John Norris for another fun four mile run/three mile walk event, at Jackson Morrow Park. The weather was nice for a change, no wind, no rain, hard to believe as it is pouring out my window right now. Be sure to thank John and all of his great help for working hard to provide venues that take us through the racing season. By the time you read this the Symphony race will have been held. Thanks to those ladies and all their volunteers, including Joni, whose own timing system was used for the event. The Haynes, which is your Club's biggest event, is coming up the first weekend in July. Have you plugged yourself in to help? Please make sure you contact Rebekah, she needs your service that day.

Are you missing your award? I still have several awards that I am carrying around with me. I will carry these vests and hats and plaques around until about September and then I will assume if you have not contacted me you do not want your award. If you are Jeff Cardwell, Nick Lipari, Laura Cook, Scott Colford, Chris Sullivan, Russ Hovermat, Scott Hamilton, Brent Noll, Debbie Riffe, Barb Millsaug. You can reach me at sheets.gina@yahoo.com and we will make arrangements, remember I may be able to make the Greentown race, otherwise I won't see you until the Haynes.

Several Club members are becoming regulars at the monthly board meetings. I really appreciate the interest and the discussion that we have at the meetings. If you wonder why we are doing something or why we are not doing something please be sure to come to the board meeting. Engage yourself with a great organization, do not just take but give. There are some great ideas that will be discussed at the June board meeting (that I will miss), hope you will be there.

Be careful out there –

Gina

It's Not Too Late to Help! The Kokomo Family YMCA and Club Kokomo

We're two weeks out and fundraisers and sponsors are still needed for the Golf Outing and Fun Run that will be held at Wildcat Golf Course on Wednesday, June 19th. There is no fee to golf, run or walk but each participant has been asked to send out at least 25 sponsor letters to family, friends and business associates and make a best effort to help reach our $40,000 goal. We are making progress but still have a long way to go!

If you would still be willing to help fundraise please contact Charlie ASAP at (765) 457-2607. If not, please prayerfully consider supporting one of our CK fundraisers who may be contacting you soon. That list includes Paul and Shelly Wyman, Freshmen running sensations Bethany and Britani Neeley, Captain Coyote Ray and Robin Tetrault, Amy Piazza, and Charlie Skoog. We will likely contact you soon and thanks to those of you who have already generously given.

Because we share the Y's mission of helping improve mind, body and spirit for all the Y board will be tithing 10% of all proceeds raised back to Club Kokomo. Realizing we can't support every cause Billy Graham offers sound advice. Simply ask God to direct you and pray that God will guide us and our organizations in using all resources carefully and wisely, remembering the Bible's teaching "that each man should give what he has decided in his heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver."

On the Trails– Fun for All Ages at the Miracle Mile

By Charlie Skoog

The first weekly Fun Mile was held on April 11, 2007, and included three participants. Mike Williams blazed a 5:41, Andrea Eckelbarger ran/walked 12:35 and Sylvia Burgin race walked 13:57. The next week numbers increased to 13 and our first family showed up. Kathy Bagwell ran 7:07 while her Mom, Ersia Livingston pushed Graham in the stroller 21:42, and Grace sprinted ahead to finish in 21:11.

Numbers continued to increase including many family combinations of all ages. On June 20 Wanda Wood was visiting Highland Park for the band concert and became our first 80 year old finisher in 27:51. One month later Hannah Moore decided to abandon the baby jogger and became the youngest to finish under her own power in a time of 15:20 just 6 days past her second birthday! Hannah had to take considerable time off after that truly monumental effort but Wanda, who was getting faster every week did return the next week and clocked a personal best of 16:30.

Since those early days of the Fun Mile there have been many personal bests including several running their first ever mile, lots of pounds shed and several more gained back. Whatever the motivation we enjoy seeing all the regulars and many new faces at Jackie's Miracle Mile. As you can see in the picture from May 5th, Hannah is now almost 5 years old as she sets a personal best time of 10:18 with encouragement from her running buddy Joe.

On May 19 another age group record was set as my dear friends Hod and Mary Ann Peabody, both age 86, finished in times of 21:51 and 26:12 respectively. Hod wanted to get loose for the Rotary 5K which he completed the following Saturday and Mary Ann is building up strength as she prepares for her second knee replacement surgery plus she just likes hanging out with best friend and love of her life, Hod.

I hope these stories of young and old motivate you as much as they do me. Whatever your age and whatever your pace we look forward to seeing you at the next Jackie Sanders Miracle Mile each Wed evening at 6:00 PM. If you need anymore encouragement it's watermelon season so refreshments will likely be provided!

Continued—A Run to Remember

we entered part of the trail and came across a little creek we had to cross by stepping carefully on the stones. That should've been our first indicator. Then the mucky mud began to appear in spots on the path. We "tiptoed" through it trying to catch the path on the edge where it was more firm. By the time we finished the 3 mile loop, our shoes were heavy with black muck.

Missy, Miles, and I stayed with Ray, Brian, and Patti for the first few miles, but we needed a "potty stop" (no port-o-pots so we needed to be discreet) so we fell behind and thankfully never caught up to those speedsters! The scenery was very nice, but crossing creeks, rivers, and endless miles of muck (Ray says 15 miles of the trail was muck and that really is NOT an exaggeration) did get old (see the pictures). The other difficult thing was our Garmin's didn't track all the miles. We never really knew what mile we were on. Thankfully we were farther than our watches said. In fact, Missy's watch stopped at 13 miles. It never read any farther... that too should've been an indication to us. We REALLY are CRAZY!

The aid stations in the second half were a much needed oasis! The volunteers were cheerful, helpful, (even filled our drink containers), and let Miles have whatever he wanted from the table (except the chocolate)! After the first aid station we had to make a 10 mile loop around the lake. Sounds like a good idea, until you realized the rock path WAS the path we were supposed to be on (again, see the pictures).

I only remember being very tired of the muck and praying we'd be done soon. We had been out there for so long. When I saw several people at a clearing I asked, "How much farther?" They said, "Right there, up the hill and turn right!" I said, "You aren't kidding me are you? Because that wouldn't be very funny..." I was beginning to hallucinate, I think. Finally! That was the finish line!

Missy, Miles, and I crossed the finish line in 8, that is EIGHT HOURS, 27 minutes, and 52 seconds! We weren't even last! Ray finished in 7:52:27 and Brian and Patti finished in 7:41:13! What a trip! What a memory for my FIRST AND LAST trail marathon!

The Oklahoma City Memorial Marathon was a much more pleasant experience, except that we arrived in OKC at 11:00 PM and our early start was at 4:30 AM! We were able to pick up our packets at a hotel in OKC (that is another story that you should ask us about sometime) and then we went to bed at midnight. We had to get up at 3:00 am to be at the 2 hour early start. Ray and I really didn't think we could finish our second marathon in 2 days in 6 hours. If you didn't finish in 6 hours, it wouldn't count! Patti joined us for the 4:30 am start and Missy brought Brian to the starting line 2 hours later.

The race was a fundraiser for families that lost loved ones in the bombing of the Murrah Building 15 years ago. It was the 10th year the race was run. It was an emotional race. The race started at the Memorial for the victims. We wished we had the time to tour the beautiful Memorial with a chair representing each life lost. There were large flags with the names of each of the 168 victims throughout the 26.2 miles. I teared up several times thinking of the loss of so many. It was an awesome marathon. I highly recommend doing this one. Everyone was so enthusiastic and friendly at every water stop. It was the most impressive group of volunteers we had met at any marathon. Everyone was there for one purpose- to REMEMBER and NEVER forget! It was truly a community- embraced event. Ray, Patti, and I encouraged each other to keep our walk/run method going until Ray couldn't run any longer. He had a nagging heel injury from stepping on a rock the previous day, blisters on the other foot, and a painful rash from the mud rubbing on his legs. At mile 17 Patti went on and we walked the rest of the race. Brian passed us shortly after that! Remember, we had a 2 hour head start! He is truly amazing! We were so impressed! We just concentrated on moving and watching the miles pass by. The last mile was very slow but we finally crossed the finish line in 7 hrs 12 min.

The two marathons in one weekend was an amazing trip. I am beginning to forget the bad parts. We just want to encourage all of you to give something new a try...10K, 1/2 marathon, marathon, trail run, or an ultra! You never know what you are capable of unless you try. You don't have to be fast. Sometimes, like this weekend, it was about COMPLETING 2 marathons in 2 days! See you all at Coyote Kids this summer!
