Ironman or Bust

What is an Ironman? Well, it's a very long triathlon consisting of a 2.4 mile swim, 112 mile bike race, and a 26.2 mile run. It's an all in one event and takes place in one day. I have been a runner for 6 years and have seen my miles soar- running ultra-distances as much as 42 miles in length. It all started as my wife, Gina, began running 7 years ago. I was always amazed that she ran so long and effortlessly, I could never do that. My excuses consisted with the usual excuses, you know, we have all heard them. Then I made up my mind that since I like to eat and approaching middle age, I had better do something to stay fit. I began walking and eyeing a sign ahead and making myself run 'til I met the sign. In a matter of days, I was running more than I was walking- and it all began.

We joined Club Kokomo Roadrunners where we have developed dear and life-long friends and we all have the passion for fitness in common. Our club consists of many true athletes, athletes that were/ are doing amazing things and they are the picture of "fit".

That's what I want to be healthy and fit.

Last year I did some bartering and now own my own road bicycle; one of those cool racing type. I also found myself spending time at our local YMCA swimming laps. It gave me a new lease on my running life. Suddenly I could train with new enthusiasm. My running improved because of cross training and my skinny body began to gradually morph into a more muscular version of my former self. Last July I completed the Muncie Endurance with is a half ironman (1.2 mile swim, 66 mile bike race, 13.2 mile run) and I did alright. I could finally call myself "a triathlete" and it gave me an indescribable inner sense of achievement. Yes, there were swimmers who swam faster, cyclists who cycled better and runners who ran swifter, but for my maiden event, I kept up with many of the veterans.

Now I knew what to expect, so why not go "whole hog", yep a full Ironman. I saved up my money and enrolled in the Louisville Ironman scheduled for August 2011. I realized that by making the commitment , paying the entry fee, and telling everyone that I am going to do the race, well, I am now obligated. I guess it is my way of making myself "stay fit". There is no way one can train for one of these races and not be in tip-top shape, it's impossible. Yes, there are those that think it's a bit overboard- even some of my own family, but they are coming around.

As with any commitment to exercise, and especially with a sport such as a triathlon, it is important to find training partners. Training partners with similar abilities work best. Training partners help you get out of bed on cold mornings and they motivate and help with accountability. Training serves two purposes. First, it conditions the body to accept a higher workload, increases cardiovascular function, and with correct rest, strengthens the body. The second positive effect is a mental one. Training builds confidence. The more you train, the more you believe in your ability to per-

CHILI COOK OFF

Once again we will have a Chili Cook off at the CKRR Awards luncheon. Prizes will be awarded for the top three Chili dishes. Have a great "chili" dish you wish to share with CKRR, now is your chance. On February 27 at 2:00pm at the Nazarine Church (2734 S Washington St, Kokomo) will be the CKRR Awards luncheon. Please bring a dish to share or if you make a mean pot of chili please bring it, who knows you could win. Please email me if you can bring a pot of chili ckrr.newseditor@att.net

O n t h e T r a i l s

By Charlie Skoog

It's starting to snow, the great blizzard of 2011 has officially begun and I'm wondering what else 2011 has in store for all of us in Club Kokomo! As I look back at 2010 I'm thankful for old and new friends who have enriched my life in so many ways and it just keeps getting better. I have always loved to run and I have always been a fan of running. When I meet others who share or have just discovered that same passion it rocks my boat and that never gets old. In 2005 I penned an article entitled "Looking Forward" and the words still ring true.

"As we begin a new year I do so with the knowledge that we are truly blessed to have Club Kokomo as part of our lives. Many of us know that CK is about a lot more than running and walking. The relationships we have developed with one another and the greater community are what define us, and as a group we have much to celebrate. If you are new or on the fringe, I encourage you to get involved in some of our club events and activities. If you are a veteran please take a little time to welcome the new faces that appear. If you are not an active part of the growing Club Kokomo family you are missing out on a lot so plan on joining us soon."

With that reminder I look forward to joining with you in sharing and striving to reach our fitness goals for 2011. I have already been inspired by Travis Sheets plan to become an Ironman, which is shared in this newsletter. I am excited that Jerry Leach is showing up every week for the Miracle Mile with his own special marathon goal in mind. I anxiously await to see who will join me at the Amboy Pancake 5K on March 5. Last year at this race I met Bethany and Brittany Neeley, they joined Club Kokomo, and have become special friends who inspire us with their passion in striving to be the best they can be. This year, Ken Huston, one of my oldest running friends from Club Kokomo has a goal to finish the Amboy 5K. Ken has been away from Club Kokomo for several years but had major back surgery in August and just got the OK to start running again at age 73! I look forward to joining Ken in starting and finishing this race and we all thank John Norris Insurance for the gloves and pancakes that commemorate this annual rite of early spring or late winter as the case may be!

After Amboy the local racing season will be in full bloom. Some will be training for their first 5K or maybe a first Mini, Tri or full marathon. Some, myself included, will be ramping up with a goal to run that elusive Boston qualifying time while others like Dan Lutes, Nicole Peel, Cheryl Marner and Jay Priest will be tuning up for an annual return trip to Boston on April 18. Wherever you're at in your training we look forward to hearing about and sharing your journey. See ya on the roads and trails!

More good trail news! Construction of the Nickel Plate Trail trestle over the Wabash River is scheduled to begin in March and be completed this summer. In Howard County a plan has been approved that will secure right of way to bring the trail as far south as Gano. This plan is complicated by the US31 Corridor construction but that appears to be working in our favor as INDOT has agreed to accommodate the trail in the new construction.

The City of Kokomo has won several state and national awards for beautification and the Downtown revitalization efforts which have come in tough economic times. Downtown is now much more bicycle and pedestrian friendly and Mayor Goodnight is committed to make our entire city that way, but do so in a cost effective manner. In 2011 you will be seeing some signed bike routes that actually make sense. You will also see more designated and delineated bike lanes wherever feasible with the goal to safely connect people on foot and bikes, to desired destinations. The City will use it's own resources to pave two new trails. The best and most practical will connect Mehling Park (our first dog park) on West Carter, with UCT Park. The second will involve the removing of one set of the tracks between Markland and Defenbaugh and paving a trail that will hopefully continue from Markland to Downtown by the end of 2102. I recently met and spoke with the new CEO of Kokomo Opalescent Glass and he too is excited that in a few years a visitor to Downtown Kokomo could walk or ride a bike to visit this local treasure. It looks rough now but these opportunities are truly diamonds in the rough waiting to be discovered and explored.

I hope you join me and our community's leaders in supporting these efforts that are and will continue to be so important to our quality of life and future economic development. If you have questions, comments, or ideas I would love to hear from you at (765) 457-2607 or runckrr@aol.com

Inspirational thought of the month

- What IS truth?
- What is your source of truth?

"You are a king, then!" said Pilate.

Jesus answered, "You are right in saying I am a king. In fact, for this reason I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone on the side of truth listens to me."

Trophies Needed

Vicki Boles is in need of all trophies you would like to donate to her running club! The response is overwhelming for students who will work hard to earn a trophy. We are currently running our ten minute runs and past students have completed their mile run. If you would like to donate your trophies, you can drop them off at Maple Crest Middle School or I can pick them up.

Please join us at our next meeting at Pastarrific at 6:30 p.m. I will be there to pick up all trophies too!

Thank you!

form well during your event. So your mental attitude is as important as the effort itself.

Long hours are spent on our country roads and my biggest pet peeve is irresponsible pet owners. I have often heard a shouting dog owner while running or cycling, that “he’s friendly, he won’t bite”. Biting is not the main concern of runner or bicyclist, it’s being tripped or wrecked. On the bicycle, I reach speeds of over 30 miles an hour and while running the “zone” factor kicks in. A friendly dog can cause serious injury.

I would encourage anyone to consider “doing something”. Exercise and healthy eating is truly a life change. Being healthy takes a conscious effort, but it is worth it. Early in my training I’ll spend 3 hours a day training and later, closer to the event 6 and 8 hours in training on certain days. I’ll follow a nutrition plan that maximizes my training schedule that consists of carbohydrates, proteins, and healthy fats. Again, discipline is the key.

The human body amazes me. I find it fascinating how vigorous exercise is such a mind game. I find myself in conflict- my body telling me that I can’t take one more step, or exert any more effort. That’s when I have to get tough, get a grip on myself and begin the positive self-talk (it usually includes a prayer too). If training becomes tedious, boring, and regimented, failure becomes more likely, so I encourage a training regime that inspires, energizes and motivates you- you know, keep it interesting. Remember, don’t set lofty goals that you’re unlikely to achieve; you’ll be disappointed and demotivated. By setting realistic training, fitness, or even weight loss goals, you’ll be counting your successes and that will inspire you.

If we meet on the road, honk, waive, and give me plenty of room. If we meet at the Y, give me a shout and let’s be encouraged!

Historical Running Club Records

Prior to January 1, 1994, our age group records were based on ten year increments. In January 1994 Club Kokomo decided to change to 5 year age groups, add some age groups, and not to convert the previous records to the new groups with the exception of the 0-19 age group which did not change at that time.
