

The Roadrunner

On the Trails.....

by Charlie Skoog

Club Kokomo once again finished the year on a very high note with 182 finishers in the New Year's Eve 5K. That was down 80 from 2011's record turnout, but last year's race was held on a Saturday with balmy temperatures, and 2012 ended on a Monday with landscape and roads covered with a heavy blanket of snow and ice. A big thank you to City of Kokomo Streets and Park Depts who came out Monday morning, salting and plowing the road portions of the course. Then they plowed and salted the walk path around Jackson Morrow Park, removing 4 to 8 inches of snow and ice and creating a fairly safe and fast track to race on. This allowed Connor Sorrells to repeat as champion with an outstanding time of 15:42, which was 12 seconds off last year's course record! Connor hails from Barr-Reeve High School in Southern Indiana and was the 2012 Indiana State High School Cross Country Champion. Bethany Neeley was unable to defend her championship as Eastern's state-rated Comets had basketball practice, allowing Super-Mom and Master Division runner, Heather Weber to garner another win with a fine time of 20:38. In the walk division Vince Lorenz and Mary Miller repeated as winners as they so often do! A shout out to Parker Jones who plowed the lot for us, and another big thank you to UAW Local 292 for providing a wonderful facility to host the race and post-race refreshments. Thanks to Race Director Joni McCracken and all who ran, walked, cooked and volunteered allowing us to raise major $$$$ for the 2013 Coyote Kids Running Program!

NIGHT FLIGHT TRAIL RUN

As I type this report I'm excitedly looking forward to CK's first points race of 2013, which will be the Night Flight 5K/10K Trail Run at beautiful Oakbrook Valley. Thank you Chris and Nikki Frazier for organizing this unique adventure race which is sure to challenge mind and body but will be good for the soul too as it benefits the Father-Son and Father-Daughter Camp Programs of Oakbrook Community Church.

NICKEL PLATE TRAIL

Last year was a special year for parks, trails, and active transportation users in Kokomo and Howard County, and all indications are 2013 is going to be even better as the vision of bringing the Nickel Plate Trail into downtown Kokomo will soon be a reality! Plans are in place to extend the NPT from Cassville to Gano St. and We Care Park by the end of the year. From the south plans are in place to extend the Industrial Heritage Trail from Main & Markland to Wildcat Creek connecting with the Walk of Excellence. If you subscribe to Facebook, make sure to Like and visit both Club Kokomo and the Discover Howard County Trails page to keep up with new developments.

I often close this article by writing, "See ya on the Trails". As we begin 2013, I'm so happy that more and more of us are able to use and be seen on a trail or bike route, and it's only going to get better. Please join me in sharing and supporting all local initiatives to cost-effectively create a more livable community. Your kids, grandkids, and "old folks" like me will be glad you did!

Thanks, CK Goodfellows!

During Goodfellows' 102nd year, the all-volunteer organization helped parents purchase clothing for more than 1,500 children this Christmas season.

Johnny O' sends a big thank you to Charlie Skoog for helping to recruit 40 Goodfellows volunteers and to the following Club Kokomo Roadrunners who, in most cases, once again became Goodfellows on Dec. 16 and 18 during client shopping at Meijer.

Some volunteers worked both nights. Volunteers included: Vicki Boles, Bill and Kathie Barnett, Laura Cook, Lisa Drotleff, Dana Neer, Joni McCracken, Greg and Jeannie Townsend, Joseph Yeagle, Steve Hearn, Lisa Birkhimer, Julia Birkhimer, Ashley Birkhimer, George Devine, Robin Tetrault, Theresa Barlow, Molly Mavrick, Charlie Skoog, John and Anne Wiles, Dan, Linda, Megan, Sarah, and Rachel Lutes, Diana Brown, Dan Coughlin, Robin Cole and Richard Kerkhof,

Diane Noll, Vicki Getz, Kathy Hagenow, Carol Savage, Dave White, Anna Rangel, Tom Miklik, and Melissa, Jeraney, and Bryan Rybolt.

Goodfellows was founded 1911 in Kokomo. Jean Lushin, Center Township Trustee, has served as the volunteer director for 33 years. John Wiles and Dave White are members of the board of directors. Wiles is president of the board.

Goodfellows spends about $120,000 each year on clothing for children. We Care provided $105,000 this year. Individual and corporate donations also help pay the costs. Corporate donations help fund Goodfellows' scholarships and donations to CK's Coyote Kids.
