

Thanks CK Goodfellows

By Johnny 'O

During Goodfellows' 103rd year, the all-volunteer organization helped parents purchase clothing for 1,500 children this Christmas season.

Johnny 'O sends a big thank you to Charlie Skoog, who helped recruit 37 CKR Goodfellows, and the following Club Kokomo Roadrunners, who, in most cases, once again became Goodfellows Dec. 15 and 17 during client shopping at Meijer.

Some volunteers worked both nights. Volunteers included: Theresa Barlow, Dave and Mary Barnes, Bill and Kathie Barnett, Vicki Boles, Diana Brown, Robin Cole, Betsy Cook, Laura Cook, Dan Coughlin, Mike Deardorff, George Devine, Lisa Drotleff, Angie Fields, Steve and Lisa Hearn, David Hughes, Vern and Sue Keller, Gale Keppel, Richard Kerkhof, Tom and Linda Miklik, Diane and Brent Noll, Brian Reinhardt, Gina Rodriguez, Carol Savage, Charlie and Jana Skoog, Greg and Jeannie Townsend, Robin Tetrault, John Wiles, Stacy Wilson, and Joseph Yeagle.

Goodfellows was founded 1911 in Kokomo. Jean Lushin, Center Township Trustee, has served as the volunteer director for 34 years. John Wiles is president of the board of directors.

Goodfellows spends about $100,000 each year on clothing for children. We Care provided $100,000 this year. Goodfellows also receive corporate and individual donations, which help fund Goodfellows' scholarships and donations to CK's Coyote Kids.

CKRR Member Update / Praise Report – Ray Tetrault (following were copied from Robin & Ray's facebook postings)

Report on Ray's biopsy....CANCER FREE! To God be the GLORY! :) Marathon #26 in the future for us! HALLELUJAH! He will have to endure treatments every 3 months until he is cancer free for 3 years, but hey, "that is cake" he says! — with Ray Tetrault.

I am glad to report to you that God has extended mercy to me, a poor sinner, and is going to let me live a few more years. Robin talked to the doctor and was told I am cancer free. So I will now rejoice and work on gaining some strength back. I hope all of you praise God with me for His mercy and compassion because I really want to complete some things before I go home to my reward for following... Ray Tetrault

NEXT CLUB MEETING – MONDAY, JAN. 13TH AT 6 P.M. AT MARTINO'S RESTURANT

Thanksgiving Day - Kokomo Cares Race

Thanksgiving seems so far away now that Christmas and New Years have passed. It was a cold, clear day for a run in and around Highland Park. There were Moore's Pies for the winners of the races and pies for those lucky ones whose names were drawn at the starting line. We had a wonderful turnout with a total of 279 registered and 247 finishers. We had 208 runners finish and 39 walkers finish on that chilly morning. We are excited to tell you we were able to donate $2179.60 to We Care! That was worth it all! The first male runner in was Jeremy Breedlove. The first female was Mary Jean, (pictured below) and she did the race barefoot! The first male walker was Vince Lorenz and the first female walker was Mary Miller.

They each received their choice of pie to take home for Thanksgiving dinner. Each participant received a medal commemorating the event. Runners and walkers were entertained with Christmas music as they ran by Rodger's Pavilion. The Christmas lights were lit and added a festive mood to the race. After the race cookies were provided by Grace Fellowship Church where Ray is the pastor.

In case some of you were wondering. We apologize for the first few guys that cut the course short by turning on Indiana instead of Courtland the second time around. It did not, however, change the results of the race, but only the times of the first 10 or so runners. This is another reason why it is critical that members of CKRR volunteer for races. Members know the courses and are aware of the "process" of the would not have happened if we had had just one volunteer from the club to be out on the course. We are grateful for the community service volunteers but they should not be the only volunteers at club races. So, please, if you are a member, do your part and volunteer for a club race. You get an automatic 20 points! That is as good as WINNING your age group!

Make your plans to attend next year's Thanksgiving Day run/walk for a fun, family time. We get participants from all over as they are in the area visiting family. Thank you for being a part of a worthwhile event. Ray & Robin Tetrault

Chaplain's Chatter

NFL playoffs, Big 10 and college basketball, high school basketball, and NBA games. Rapidly approaching are the Winter Olympics and the Super Bowl. Go Colts and Pacers!

Goal setting isn't just a good idea for productivity. It's also a spiritual discipline, like prayer, fasting, tithing, and reading our Bible. In fact, goal setting can be an act of stewardship, as we attempt to make the most of all that God has given us. We can waste our lives. Plenty of people do it. To make the most of our life and to invest it in a way that outlasts us, we'll need goals.

We're either someone who makes things happen or someone who watches things happen – or maybe we have no idea at all what is happening! Those who make things happen are the ones that change the world.

Even God sets goals. The Bible says, "God planned to bring all of history to its goal in Christ. Then Christ would be the head of everything in heaven and on earth." Ephesians 1:10 (GWT). God didn't sit around and let the history of the world unfold in a way that He found appropriate. He PLANNED history. God has goals for the Church. God has goals for every facet of the universe.

History is moving to a climax. There will be a Judgment Day, when every knee will bow and every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord. History is moving toward that goal – because God planned it that way.

If God plans, then so should we. God wants us to be like Him in all facets of our lives, including goal setting. You've heard people say, "I'm not going to plan. I'm just going to trust God and go with the flow." That's not spiritual; it's silly! We shouldn't go one more day without making plans for this year. Otherwise, we'll drift through 2014 as we've likely done in previous years.

If God has a plan for the next year, shouldn't we have one, too?

Always thanking God for his gift of grace,
Ricke

2. Brief Treasurer's report by Mark Shorter. Also request for information on where to send the Open Arms check to. Linda Kendall will seek out the information.
3. Thanksgiving Race Report – 279 registrations were received and there were 249 finishers. A check was taken to We Care for $2100. There were not have enough volunteers for the event and additional volunteers will be needed in the future.
4. NYE Race – Mark Shorter advises that we are set up with Active.com. Charlie Skoog would like to look into 'Get Me Registered' for race directors in the future.
5. Patty Weitzel spoke with Michael Anderson and their family is willing to be the race director for the Haynes Apperson.
6. Goodfellows need volunteers.
7. Robin Tetrault needs anyone interested in the sweat suits to contact her so that the order can be submitted. Information will be included in the newsletter.
8. Travis & Jenna Sheets with Hope in the Harvest would like to take running shoes, shirts, socks, etc. to Africa. Please see Charlie Skoog if you have any donations.
9. Patty Weitzel will be contacting the awards committee and the banquet is scheduled for Saturday. February 8th at 2pm at Brookside Free Methodist Church.
10. Robin Tetrault requested $610 for a tent for the Indy Mini. Robin Cole made the motion, seconded by Carol Savage and passed the group present.
11. RickeStucker brought up the importance that baby joggers, animals, and radio headsets are not allowed in race/club events. Also that registered walkers cannot run. This was discussed and Scott Deyoe suggested keep the rules across the board and to highlight the rules in the January newsletter. These rules will be highlighted on the 2014 membership form. Also the suggestion was made that if two individuals report a violator, then the race director will disqualify the violator from the event.
12. Charlie Skoog states he has a garage full of equipment and club supplies. Need someone to manage and take over inventory control for these supplies at only CKRR events. Any use of this equipment would need to be requested from the board in a formal manner. Anyone wishing to volunteer should contact Patty Weitzel.
13. A volunteer is needed to man the Indy 500 tent, please express interest to Patty Weitzel.
