COYOTE KIDS 2014 – Ray & Robin Tetrault

It is time to start gearing up for Coyote Kids 2014. It is hard to believe we are starting our 11th year Thursday, June 5th and it runs through July 24th this year. We will NOT meet the week of July 4th. We have built in an extra week again this year in case of a rain week. We will be doing awards on Thursday night, July 31st at Morningstar Church's Connection building on Markland Blvd.

We are starting the 25/50 yard kids at 6:15 PM and they will run heats until 6:45pm or whenever the line runs out of runners. The other races will begin at 6:30 PM. As always, WE NEED YOU to make 2014 another successful year.

I have quite a few of the "regulars" that have told me they will do what they always do but we could use some more folks for set up, course directors and parking. We will need you at Jackson Morrow Park at 4:30 pm for set up if you are able to come help that would be so much appreciated. If you have helped in the past or you forgot to let us know please send out a quick email to me. Please email Ray and me at rayrobin@email.com to tell us where you would like to fit in.

Our sponsors are stepping up again this year and we need YOU to make the program successful once again. If you have never come out because you don't have kids or grandkids, come out on week one and see this marvelous program in action! Mark your calendars because you don't want to miss a single week of COYOTE KIDS! Thank you for your part in creating a dynamic program.

CHAPLAIN'S CHATTER

High school graduation parties. June weddings. State Track Meets. 2CK races. Indiana-Kentucky All-Star basketball games. Coyote Kids. Kokomo Summer Distance Camp. Ray T. and Mark S. are Birthday Boys. Finally, warm weather!

Focus on the good times: Have selective memory. Developing an attitude of gratitude does not come naturally. We are not by nature grateful people. We are by nature discontented. We always want more or something different.

In the book of Philippians, Paul was writing to the church that he started in Philippi, where a woman names Lydia opened up her home and, along with other, welcomed Paul to the city. The Philippian church even helped fund Paul's missionary journeys. In Philippians 1:5, Paul says, "I thank God for the help you gave me" (NCV).

The thing is, Paul didn't have a good time in Philippi. In fact it was one of his toughest churches to get started. When Paul went to this city to start a church, he was beaten, whipped, humiliated, falsely arrested, thrown into prison, and had to survive an earthquake. Then, he was politely asked by the city leaders to leave town.

Yet Paul told the believers, "Every time I think of you, I give thanks to my God" (Philippians 1:3 NLT).

What is Paul doing there? He is choosing selective memory. Philippi was not happy place for Paul, and he endured a lot of persecution and suffering during his time in that city. But he chose not to dwell on painful memories and instead expressed his gratitude for the good things that has been done for him and through him.

The longer you know someone, the more likely you are to take that person for granted and to look for faults and remember the bad things instead of the good things.

Are you still living some painful memories with some people in YOUR life? You've never let them off the hook, and you can't enjoy the relationship because you're still holding on to the past.

You need to understand that memories are a choice. I heard a story about two friends who were talking. One of them asked the other, "Don't you remember that time when your husband did this?" Her friend replied, "I distinctly remember forgetting that."

Your memories are a choice. If you want to hold on to your painful memories, go right ahead. But you're not going to be happy! Paul had a lot of reasons to have painful memories of Philippi. Instead, he made the choice to be grateful for the people in his life and the work God was doing in and through them. When you do the same, God will bless your relationships far beyond your expectations.

Always thanking God for His gift of grace,
Ricke
